

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. REQUISITES FOR ADMISSION.

In History and Geography all candidates will be examined as follows : —

In the elements of Physical Geography ;

In Ancient and Modern Geography ;

In the historical and geographical notices found in the required Greek and Latin text-books ;

And in Smith's Smaller History of Greece, or Sewell's History of Greece.

In Latin, Greek, and Mathematics, each candidate must be examined in one of the two following courses of study : —

I.

LATIN.*

The whole of Virgil.

The whole of Caesar's Commentaries.

Ten Orations of Cicero.

Latin Grammar (including Prosody).

Writing Latin.

GREEK.†

The whole of Xenophon's Anabasis, or Goodwin and Allen's Greek Reader.

The first three books of the Iliad (omitting the Catalogue of Ships).

Greek Grammar (including Metres).

Writing Greek (with the Accents).

MATHEMATICS.

Arithmetic, including the Metric System of Weights and Measures.

The elements of Algebra, as far as through Quadratic Equations.

Elementary Plane Geometry, including so much as is contained in the first thirteen chapters of Peirce's Geometry.

II.

LATIN.*

The Eclogues and first six books of the Aeneid of Virgil.

The first four books of Caesar's Commentaries.

Six Orations of Cicero.

Latin Grammar (including Prosody).

GREEK.†

The first four books of Xenophon's Anabasis, or Goodwin and Allen's Greek Reader as far as page 111.

The first two books of the Iliad (omitting the Catalogue of Ships).

Greek Grammar (including Metres).

MATHEMATICS.

Arithmetic, including the Metric System of Weights and Measures.

Algebra (as much as is contained in the advanced text-books, such as the larger Algebras of Todhunter, Loomis, Robinson, Greenleaf, &c.).

Plane and Solid Geometry.

Logarithms.

Plane Trigonometry, by the Analytic Method (as much as is contained in the first six chapters of Peirce's Trigonometry, or the large print of the first eight chapters of Chauvenet's Trigonometry).

Elementary Mechanics (as much as is contained in Snowball and Lund's Cambridge Course of Natural Philosophy).

* In Latin the following pronunciation is recommended : a as in father, ä the same sound shorter, æ like a in fate, è as in set, ï as in machine, ï as in sit, ö as in hole, ö as in nor, ü as in rude, ü as in put ; j like y in year, c and g like Greek κ and γ.

† Instructors are requested to teach their pupils to pronounce Greek with the Greek Accents, and with the so-called Continental sound of the vowels and diphthongs, — for example, giving a the sound of a in father, η that of a in fate, ι that of i in machine, etc.

Real equivalents will be received for any of the classics named above, or for parts of them; as, for instance, six Books of Ovid's Metamorphoses, in place of the last four Books of the Aeneid, or of the Bucolics and Georgics of Virgil; the Catiline and Jugurtha of Sallust, in place of the last three Books of Caesar; the first three, or the last three, Books of Xenophon's Cyropaedia, or the extracts from Herodotus in Felton's Greek Historians, in place of the last three Books of the Anabasis.

No particular text-book in Grammar is required; but either Goodwin's or Hadley's Elementary Greek Grammar, and either Allen's or Harkness's Elementary Latin Grammar, will serve to indicate the nature and amount of the grammatical knowledge demanded.

No partial substitutions, or interchanges, between Courses I. and II. will be allowed.

Candidates who pass the examinations in the additional Mathematical requisitions will be admitted to advanced sections in Mathematics and Physical Science; and all who hope to attain distinction in these studies are strongly advised to prepare themselves in the Mathematical subjects indicated above in column II.

FRENCH.

An examination in the translation of French prose will be held at the beginning of the Freshman year; those students who pass this examination satisfactorily will not be required to study French in the College course.

ENGLISH.

Members of the Freshman Class are examined, as early as possible after their admission, in reading aloud English prose. Prizes will be awarded for excellence. For 1872 students may prepare themselves in Goldsmith's Vicar of Wakefield.

In 1872, and after that year, there will be additional examinations in the following classical subjects:—

LATIN.

Horace, Odes.

Livy, Three Books.

Cicero, De Senectute.

GREEK.

Plato's Apology and Crito.

Books IV., V., VI., and VII. of the Iliad.

No candidate will be required to present himself at these additional examinations; but those who pass these, with the other classical examinations of Course I. above, will be placed in advanced sections in Latin and Greek immediately on entering College. All those who hope to attain distinction in classical studies, or to graduate with classical honors, are strongly advised to pass these examinations on entering.

A set of recent Examination Papers will be sent to any Teacher, on application to the Secretary.

TIME AND CONDITIONS OF EXAMINATION.

All candidates for admission to any Class in College must in the first place be examined for admission to the Freshman Class.

The regular examination for admission to the Freshman and Sophomore Classes will take place on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, June 27, 28, and 29, 1872, beginning precisely at 8 o'clock, A. M., on Thursday. The candidates will assemble in Massachusetts Hall. Attendance on the three days is required.*

The continuation of the examination of those who offer themselves for the Junior and Senior Classes will be deferred to the end of the vacation.

A second examination for admission to the Freshman and Sophomore Classes will take place at the beginning of the Academic year, on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, September 26, 27, and 28, 1872, attendance on the three days being required. The candidates will assemble on Thursday, September 26, in Massachusetts Hall, at 8 o'clock, A. M. On the same day, the examination of candidates offered for the Junior and Senior Classes (including the deferred examination of those offered in June) will take place, beginning at 8 A. M. in Massachusetts Hall.

No person will be examined for admission to College at any other time than those above specified.

Candidates may be admitted to advanced standing as late as the beginning of the Senior year, provided they present themselves for examination as above directed. The candidate for admission to advanced standing, whether from another College or not, must appear, on examination, to be well versed in the following studies:—

1. In the studies required for admission to the Freshman Class.
2. In all the required studies already gone over by the Class for which he is offered; and in as many elective studies as he would have pursued if he had entered at the beginning of the course.

Every candidate, before examination, must produce testimonials of good moral character, and, if admitted, must give a bond for six hundred dollars to pay all charges accruing under the laws and customs of the University. The bond must be executed by two bondsmen, who must be satisfactory to the Steward of the College, and one of them must be a citizen of Massachusetts.

* Candidates for admission to the Sophomore Class who apply in June, must either finish their examination at that time, or begin as new applicants at the examination in September.

COURSE OF INSTRUCTION

FOR THE

ACADEMIC YEAR, 1870-71.

FRESHMAN CLASS.

1. Greek. Xenophon's Memorabilia, Book I. — Homer's Odyssey, Books I. VI., and VII. — Plato's Apology. — Clouds of Aristophanes. — Alcestis of Euripides. — Grote's History of Greece, Vol. VIII. chapters LXVII. and LXVIII. — Goodwin's Greek Moods and Tenses. — Greek Composition.
2. Latin. Livy, Book XXI. — Cicero, de Senectute. — Horace, Odes and Carmen Saeculare. — Exercises in Extemporaneous Translation and Composition.
3. Mathematics. Section A. Chauvenet's Geometry, Books VI., VII., and VIII. — Logarithms. — Plane Trigonometry. — Todhunter's Algebra, Chapters XVI.-XXVIII., and XXX.-XXXV. — Rudiments of Analytic Geometry by Lectures.
Section B. Chauvenet's Geometry, Books VI. and VII. — Logarithms. — Plane Trigonometry. — Todhunter's Algebra, Chapters XVI.-XXVIII., and XXX.-XXXV.
4. Physics (half of the year). Mechanics and Hydrostatics, Snowball and Lund's Cambridge Physics.
5. French. Advanced French. Clos Pommier. — La Cagnotte. — Otto's Grammar. Primary French. 6 Chapters of Clos Pommier. — Les Femmes Qui Pleurent. — Un Mari Brûlé. — Otto's Grammar.
6. Elocution. The Mechanism of Speech, by Lectures, with Exercises on the Elements. — Readings in Prose.
7. Ethics (half of the year). Champlin's First Principles of Ethics. — Bulfinch's Evidences of Christianity.

SOPHOMORE CLASS.

1. German. Whitney's Grammar and Reader (Selections).
2. Physics (half of the year). Ganot's Physics, Atkinson's edition, Books I.-IV.

3. History (half of the year). Schmitz's History of the Middle Ages, first 200 pages.
4. Chemistry (half of the year). Eliot and Storer's Inorganic Chemistry.
5. Rhetoric. Themes, once every four weeks.
6. Elocution. Analysis of Vocal Expression, by Lectures, with Exercises.
— Readings in Paradise Lost. — Extra lessons in reading Prose.

ELECTIVE STUDIES.

I. THE CLASSICS.

1. Greek. Section A. Aeschylus, Prometheus. — Aristophanes, Birds. — Demosthenes, First Olynthiac, and first three Philippics. — Grote's History of Greece, chapters LV., LVI., LVIII., LXXXVI.-XC. — Thirty exercises in Translation and Composition.
Section B. Herodotus, I. to Chap. CLXIX. — Demosthenes, first two Philippics. — Homer's Iliad, XVIII.
2. Greek. 2. Plato, Apology and Crito. — Euripides, Alcestis. — Homer's Iliad, IV., V., VI., XVIII., and XIX.
3. Latin. 1. Section A. Cicero, de Amicitia. — Terence, Andria. — Horace, Satires. — Latin Composition, with Madvig's Grammar for reference.
Section B. Quintus Curtius, Books V. and VI. — Ovid, Ramsay's selections. — Terence, Heautontimoroumenos.
4. Latin. 2. Cicero, Tusculan Disputations, Book I. — Epistolae (Selections.) — De Oratore, Book I. (one half).

II. PHILOSOPHY.

The same as the Junior required course.

III. MODERN LANGUAGES.

1. Italian. Cuore's Grammar. — Prose Scelte (Selections).

IV. MATHEMATICS.

1. Spherical Trigonometry (Chauvenet). — Introduction to Analytic Geometry (lectures, with practical exercises). — Elements of the Differential Calculus (lectures, with Haddon's Examples).
2. Analytic Geometry (Salmon's Conic Sections, fifth edition, Chapters I.-III., V.-VII., X.-XII., with parts of XIII).
3. Mechanics (same as Junior course).

V. PHYSICS (INCLUDING CHEMISTRY).

1. Chemistry. Eliot and Storer's Inorganic Chemistry, with Laboratory work. — Cooke's Chemical Philosophy, Part I.

VI. NATURAL HISTORY.

1. Page's Advanced Text-book of Physical Geography. — Dana's Manual of Geology, except those parts treating of Petrology and Historical Geology. — Lectures. — Excursions.

JUNIOR CLASS.

1. Philosophy. Whately's Logic (Selections). — Hamilton's Metaphysics (Selections). — Four Forensics.
2. Political Economy. Rogers' Political Economy. — Alden, Constitution of the United States.
3. Rhetoric. Four Themes.
4. Physics. Ganot's Physics, Books VI. as far as § 357, and VII. as far as § 351.
- 5. Lectures on Mechanics, including Hydrostatics and Hydro-dynamics.

ELECTIVE STUDIES.

I. THE CLASSICS.

- Greek*. 1. Aeschines against Ctesiphon. — Demosthenes on the Crown. — Sophocles, Antigone. — Euripides, Medea. — Aristophanes, Clouds.
2. Thucydides, Books VI. and VII. — Herodotus, portions of Books I., VI., and VII.
 3. Polybius, Books I. and III.
- Latin*. Tacitus, Annals (Selections). — Quintilian, Book X. — Juvenal, (Selections).

II. PHILOSOPHY.

1. Formal Logic. — Mansel, Metaphysics. — Bowen, Ethics and Metaphysics (Selections). — Bouillier, Notions d'Histoire de la Philosophie.
2. Mill's Examination of Hamilton's Philosophy. — Porter on the Human Intellect (Selections). — Locke, Essay on Human Understanding.

III. HISTORY.

1. The General History of Europe from A. D. 888 (in a French text-book).
2. Mediaeval History. The same as for the Senior year.

IV. MODERN LANGUAGES.

1. French. Corneille, Cid. — Feuillet, Le Roman d'un jeune homme pauvre. — De Vigny, Cinq-Mars. — Translations into French from an English Comedy.

2. German. Goethe, Egmont and Iphigenie. — Schiller, Kabale und Liebe. — Lessing, Emilia Galotti. — Eichendorf, Aus dem Leben eines Taugenichts.
3. Italian. Francesca da Rimini. — I Promessi Sposi. — Cuore's Grammar.
4. Spanish. Sales' Grammar. — Gil Blas.

V. MATHEMATICS.

1. Integral Calculus (Peirce's Curves and Functions, Books III. and V., to Differential Equations). — Lectures on Determinants, the Theory of Numbers, and Anharmonic Geometry; attended also by those Juniors who elected with the Sophomores.
2. Mechanics (Kerr's Elementary Mechanics).

VI. PHYSICS (INCLUDING CHEMISTRY).

1. Physics. Herschel's Outlines of Astronomy, and Tyndall's Lectures on Heat.
2. Chemistry. Galloway's Qualitative Analysis. — Cooke's Chemical Philosophy, Part II. — Lectures. — The course consisted chiefly of Laboratory work.

VII. NATURAL HISTORY.

1. Botany. Gray's Structural and Systematic Botany. — Field, Forest, and Garden Botany.
2. Zoölogy. Lectures and practical Laboratory work.

SENIOR CLASS.

1. Physics. Lectures on Mechanics, Optics and Acoustics.
2. Philosophy. Four Forensics.
3. Rhetoric. Four Themes.

ELECTIVE STUDIES.

I. THE CLASSICS.

- Greek*. 1. Aeschylus, Agamemnon and Septem. — Sophocles, Electra. — Euripides, Iphigenia in Tauris. — Aristophanes, Knights and Frogs.
2. Plato, Protagoras and Gorgias. — Aristotle, Ethics, I., II., III., X.
3. Ecclesiastical Greek, Christian Fathers; Justin, Apologia, I., II., Dialogue with Tryphon. — Hippolytus (Selections).
- Latin*. 1. Plautus, Amphitruo and Rudens. — Cicero, de Deorum Natura, 2 books. — Lucretius (Selections).

II. PHILOSOPHY.

1. Bouillier, Histoire de la Philosophie Cartésienne. — Bowen, Ethics and Metaphysics (Selections). — Schwegler's History of Philosophy, and Kant's Critique of Pure Reason (Selections). — Lectures on the Philosophy of the 17th century, and on Kant and the later German metaphysicians.
2. Mill's Examination of Hamilton's Philosophy. — Porter on the Human Intellect (Selections). — Locke's Essay on Human Understanding.
3. Whewell's Elements of Moral and Political Philosophy. — Cicero, de Officiis. — Oral Lectures on Ethics.
4. Political Economy, Adam Smith's Wealth of Nations. — J. S. Mill's Political Economy.

III. HISTORY.

1. Laboulaye, Histoire des États-Unis, Vol. III. — Maréchal, Histoire Contemporaine. — J. S. Mill, Representative Government.
2. Mediaeval History. — Hallam's Middle Ages. — Menzel or Kohlrausch, History of Germany. — Bryce's Holy Roman Empire. — Milman's Latin Christianity. — Sismondi or Michelet, History of France.
3. Woolsey, International Law. — Duruy, Histoire des Temps Modernes. — Maréchal, Histoire Contemporaine.

IV. MODERN LANGUAGES.

1. French. Corneille, Cid. — De Vigny, Cinq-Mars. — Molière, Le Misanthrope, Les Précieuses Ridicules, Les Femmes Savantes. — Translations into French from Sheridan's School for Scandal.
2. French and German. Demogeot, Histoire de la Littérature Française. — Eichendorf, Aus dem Leben eines Taugenichts. — Goethe, Faust.
3. Anglo Saxon and Early English. Beowulf, in Moritz Heyne's edition. — Mätzner, Altenglische Sprachproben (all the Prose). — The Vision of Piers Plowman, 7 Passus, as edited by Skeat.
4. Early English Poetry. The whole of the Vision of Piers Plowman, with the Creed, Wright's edition. — The Romance of Sir Gawain.
5. German. Schiller's Wallenstein (Lager, Piccolomini, and Wallenstein's Tod). — Goethe's Iphigenie.
6. Italian. Selections from Dante, Petrarch, Ariosto, and Tasso.

V. MATHEMATICS.

1. Mechanics (Peirce's Analytic Mechanics, §§ 1-177, 240-278, 306-431, 442-482, 671-712, 753-783).

42 STUDIES OF SENIORS, JUNIORS, AND SOPHOMORES.

2. Theory of Functions (Briot et Bouquet, Fonctions doublement périodiques, livres II-V., Chap. v.). — Lectures on Determinants, the Theory of Numbers, and Anharmonic Geometry; attended also by those Seniors who elected with Juniors and Sophomores.
3. Mathematical Astronomy (Gauss's Theoria Motus, with Bowditch's Appendix to the Mécanique Céleste and Chauvenet's Method of Least Squares).

VI. PHYSICS (INCLUDING CHEMISTRY).

1. Physics. Undulatory theory of Light, Acoustics, Electricity, and Magnetism, in selections from the Treatises by Peirce, Lardner, and Ga not. — Lectures.
2. Chemistry. Crystallography, with exercises in drawing and determining Crystals. — Descriptive Mineralogy, with practical exercises in determining Minerals with the use of the blowpipe.
3. Chemistry. The Principles of Organic Chemistry. — Practical exercises in Quantitative Analysis and in Chemical Physics.

VII. NATURAL HISTORY.

1. Zoölogy, and Palaeontology. Lectures and Practical Laboratory work.
2. Botany. Gray's Structural and Systematic Botany. — Gray's Manual of Botany of Northern United States. — Field, Forest, and Garden Botany.

STUDIES OF SENIORS, JUNIORS, AND SOPHOMORES

IN THE YEAR 1871-72.

REQUIRED STUDIES OF THE YEAR 1871-72.

- IN THE SENIOR YEAR. — Physics, one lecture a week for a half-year. Themes.
- IN THE JUNIOR YEAR. — Philosophy, two hours a week through the year. Physics, two hours a week for a half-year, and one Lecture a week through the year. Political Economy and the Constitution of the United States, together, two hours a week for a half-year. Rhetoric, two hours a week for a half year. In all, six hours a week. Themes.
- IN THE SOPHOMORE YEAR. — German, two hours a week through the year. Rhetoric, two hours a week through the year. Physics, two hours a week for a half-year. History, two hours a week for a half-year. Chemistry, three hours a week for a half-year. In all seven and a half hours a week. Themes and Elocution.

ELECTIVE STUDIES OF THE YEAR 1871-72.

Seniors are required to take twelve hours of Electives.

Juniors are required to take nine hours of Electives.

Sophomores are required to take eight hours of Electives.

INSTRUCTION IN THE FOLLOWING ELECTIVES (OF THREE HOURS EACH) IS PROVIDED FOR THE SENIOR CLASS:—

I. THE CLASSICS.

- Greek.* 1. Aeschylus (Eumenides). — Sophocles (Oedipus Tyrannus). — Euripides (Hippolytus). — Aristophanes (Wasps). — Selections from the Lyric Poets.
2. Plato (Protagoras and parts of the Republic). — Aristotle (Ethics, Books I., II., III., X.).
3. Ecclesiastical Greek (Christian Fathers).
- Latin.* 1. Plautus (Two Comedies). — Cicero (Brutus). — Lucretius (Selections). — Catullus.
- A Senior may elect any one of the Junior Greek Courses, or the Junior Latin Course.*

II. PHILOSOPHY.

1. Bouillier (Histoire de la Philosophie Cartésienne). — Schwegler's History of Philosophy. — Kant's Critique of Pure Reason.
2. Reichlin-Meldegge, Einleitung zur Philosophie, und System der Logik. — Mill's Examination of Hamilton's Philosophy. — Newman's Grammar of Assent.
3. Kant's Metaphysic of Ethics. — Cicero, de Officiis, and Lectures.
4. Political Economy (Adam Smith's Wealth of Nations — Bowen's American Political Economy — J. S. Mill's Political Economy).
- Course 2 is only for Students who take Course 1.*
- Candidates for Honors in Philosophy may substitute Course 2 of Senior Greek in place of one Elective in Philosophy.*

III. HISTORY.

1. History of England to the Seventeenth Century.
2. Modern History (Seventeenth Century and First Half of the Eighteenth).
3. Modern History (from the Middle of the Eighteenth Century).

IV. MODERN LANGUAGES.

- *1. French. Brachet (Grammaire historique). — Norman and Early French. — French Composition.
2. French. Pellissier (Langue française). — Demogeot (Littérature française). — French Composition.
- *3. Old French. Bartsch's Chrestomathie de l'Ancien Français. — La Chanson de Roland.
4. Italian. Early Italian (Selections). — Dante. — Machiavelli.
5. German. Schiller. — Goethe. — Lessing. — Contemporary Prose.

A Student electing a Modern Language is required to study it with the Class with which his proficiency fits him to go on in that language. No Student is allowed to elect Course 1, 2, 3, or 4, unless he is proficient in Latin as well as in French or Italian.

V. MATHEMATICS.

1. Analytic Mechanics.
2. General Theory of Functions.
3. Mathematical Astronomy.

A Senior may take any Junior or Sophomore Elective in Mathematics which he has not already studied.

VI. PHYSICS (INCLUDING CHEMISTRY).

1. Physics. — Undulatory Theory of Light. — Electricity and Magnetism.
2. Heat (with its Applications).
3. Chemistry. — Crystallography (including the Physics of Crystals). — Mineralogy.
4. Chemistry (Quantitative Analysis, with Practical Exercises in Chemical Physics). — Organic Chemistry.

VII. NATURAL HISTORY.

1. Historical Geology and Orography.
2. Palaeontology and Zoölogy.
3. Botany.

Candidates for Honors in Natural History may substitute Course 3 in Physics in place of one Elective in Natural History.

VIII. MUSIC.

The Junior Elective in Music is open to Seniors.

INSTRUCTION IN THE FOLLOWING ELECTIVES (OF THREE HOURS EACH) IS PROVIDED FOR THE JUNIOR CLASS :—

I. CLASSICS.

- Greek.* 1. Aeschines (against Ctesiphon). Demosthenes (on the Crown). — Aeschylus (Agamemnon). — Sophocles (Antigone). — Aristophanes (Knights).
 2. Thucydides and Herodotus (Selections).
 3. Polybius and Plutarch.
- Latin.* 1. Tacitus (Germania and Agricola). — Horace (Epistles). — Juvenal (Selections). — Quintilian (Book I).

A Junior may (with the permission of the Department) take any one of the Senior Courses in Greek, or the Senior Course in Latin.

II. PHILOSOPHY.

1. Mansel's Metaphysics. — Cousin's Philosophie de Locke. — Renouvier's Philosophie Ancienne. — Bowen's Logic.
2. Reichlin-Meldegg, Einleitung zur Philosophie, und System der Logik. — Mill's Examination of Hamilton's Philosophy. — Newman's Grammar of Assent.

Course 2 is only for Students who take Course 1.

III. HISTORY.

1. The General History of Europe from the Tenth to the Sixteenth Century. — Hallam's Middle Ages.
2. Mediaeval History. (Advanced Course.)

Course 2 is only for Candidates for Honors.

IV. MODERN LANGUAGES.

1. French. Lemaire (Grammaire française). — Molière. — French Composition.
2. Italian. Toscani's Grammar. — Nota's La Fiera. — A. Manzoni. — Tasso. — Italian Composition.
3. Spanish. Sales' Grammar. — Gil Blas. — Spanish Composition.
4. German. Goethe. — Lessing. — Schiller.
5. English. History and Grammar of the Language (in various books).

A Student electing a Modern Language is required to study it with that Class with which his proficiency fits him to go on.

V. MATHEMATICS.

1. Integral Calculus and General Theory of Functions.
2. Mechanics.

A Junior may take any Sophomore Elective in Mathematics which he has not previously studied.

VI. PHYSICS (INCLUDING CHEMISTRY).

1. Physics. Astronomy and Acoustics.
2. Mathematical Physics. (With Practical Exercises in the Laboratory.)
3. Chemistry. (Qualitative Analysis). — Chemical Philosophy.

Course 2 is open only to Students who elected Mathematics in the Sophomore year. Students who elect this Course are advised to elect also Course 2 of Junior Mathematics.

VII. NATURAL HISTORY.

Botany and Zoölogy (with Practical Exercises in Microscopy).

Candidates for Honors in Natural History must take also one Course in Mathematics or Physics in the Junior year.

VIII. MUSIC.

Theory of Music. — (Harmony. — Counterpoint and Choral Figuration. — Free Composition. — Song, march, dance, and rondo forms).

The Elective in Music is open also to Seniors and Sophomores. Students who take this Elective are required to show, by a previous Examination, that they are competent to pursue it.

INSTRUCTION IN THE FOLLOWING ELECTIVES (OF TWO HOURS EACH) IS PROVIDED FOR THE SOPHOMORE CLASS :—

I. CLASSICS.

- Greek.* 1. Thucydides (Book IV.). — Aristophanes (Knights). — Sophocles (Ajax). — Demosthenes (Philippics).
2. Aristophanes (Birds). — Demosthenes (Olynthiacs). — Euripides (Medea). — Homer (Iliad).
3. Parts of Demosthenes and Thucydides. — Exercises in Translation and Composition. — Homer and Greek Philology.

Sophomores who elect only one course in Greek take Course 1. Any Sophomore may (with the permission of the Department) elect Junior Course 2 in Greek in addition to the Sophomore Course 1.

- Latin.* 1. Horace (Satires, Book I.). — Cícero (Laelius, pro Murena, Select Epistles). — Terence.
2. Horace (Satires, Book II., and Epistles). — Cicero (Tusculan Questions and de Oratore).

II. PHILOSOPHY.

Any Student may take as one of his Sophomore Electives the required course in Philosophy (two hours a week) of the Junior year; and, in his Junior year, in place of the required Philosophy thus anticipated, may take any Elective open to Sophomores or Juniors.

This provision is made to enable Students who may desire to pursue the study of Philosophy to judge intelligently, at the beginning of the Junior year, to what extent they wish to pursue it.

III. MODERN LANGUAGES.

- French.* 1. Exercises in French Syntax. — Modern French Plays.
- Italian.* 2. Toscani's Grammar. — Prose Scelte. — Italian Composition.

IV. MATHEMATICS.

1. Elements of Analytic Geometry of Two and Three Dimensions and of Superior Geometry. — Spherical Trigonometry.
2. Elements of the Differential and Integral Calculus.
3. Applications of Plane Trigonometry. — Principles of Surveying. — Spherical Trigonometry. — Applications of Spherical Trigonometry to Astronomy and Navigation.

Course 3 is not accepted as one of the Courses entitling a Student to Honors in Mathematics.

V. PHYSICS (INCLUDING CHEMISTRY).

Chemistry. Elementary Chemistry (with Laboratory Practice). — Eliot and Storer's Manual. — Cooke's Chemical Philosophy.

VI. NATURAL HISTORY.

1. Physical Geography and Structural Geology.

VII. MUSIC.

The Junior Elective in Music is open to Sophomores.

HONORS.

A candidate for Special Honors in 1873 in any one of the Seven Departments — Classics, Philosophy,^a History,^a Modern Languages, Mathematics, Physics (including Chemistry), and Natural History — must have passed with distinction examinations: (1), in all the required work of the College in that Department; (2), if the Department be Classics or Mathematics, in two Electives in it in the Sophomore year; if it be Modern Languages, Physics, or Natural History, in one Elective in it in the Sophomore year; (3), in two Electives in it in the Junior year; (4), in three Electives in it in the Senior year.

In addition to these general requisitions, special requisitions may be made in any Department. For example, in the Classics, the ability to write Greek and Latin prose, and to read ordinary Greek and Latin at sight, will be required; in Mathematics, the courses in that subject marked with a * must have been pursued, together with a sufficient number of the other Mathematical courses to conform to the general rule; in Modern Languages, one at least of the * courses in that Department must have been taken; and in all Departments special investigations may be required. Every candidate for Honors must, at or near the close of the Senior year, pass an examination on the subjects in which he applies for Honors before a committee of the Faculty appointed for the purpose. This examination may be either oral, written, or by experimental work, as the committee shall determine.

Students who in previous years have not elected the requisite number of courses, or have failed to pass any of the examinations with distinction, may, with the consent of the Faculty, make up their deficiencies by passing such additional examinations as may be required of them; but no such permission will be granted for work omitted after the beginning of the Senior year.

Every student who desires to be regarded as a candidate for Honors must register his name at the Dean's office before the first day of June in his Junior year.

Of a candidate for Special Honors in 1872 the same requisitions will be ^a The Elective Political Economy may be taken as a part of the course for Honors either in Philosophy or History.

made as in 1873, except that in the Departments of Modern Languages, Physics, and Natural History, no Elective will be required in the Sophomore year.

SECOND-YEAR HONORS IN THE CLASSICS AND IN MATHEMATICS.

The Faculty has established a grade of honors in the Classics and in Mathematics, called Second-Year Honors, open both to Sophomores and to Juniors.

These Honors will be awarded in the Classics on two conditions. The first condition is distinguished excellence in the required classical work of the Freshman year, and in the work of any two classical electives of the Sophomore or the Junior year. The second condition consists in passing with distinction a special examination ; —

(a.) In the translation at sight of passages taken from the less difficult Greek and Latin authors.

(b.) In Greek and Latin Prose Composition.

(c.) In the Grammar and Comparative Philology of the Greek and Latin languages. This special examination will be held at some time near the close of the Academic year.

Second-year Honors will be awarded in Mathematics on two conditions. The first condition is distinguished excellence in all the required mathematical work of the Freshman year, and in the work of the first and second mathematical electives of the Sophomore year, comprising the subjects of Plane and Solid Geometry, Algebra, the Theory and Use of Logarithms, Plane and Spherical Trigonometry, Analytic Geometry, and the elements of the Differential and Integral Calculus. The second condition consists in passing with distinction a special examination, partly written and partly oral, which will involve a moderate amount of work additional to that comprised in the regular courses and may be extended to cover the whole mathematical knowledge of the candidates. The special examination for Sophomores and Juniors of this Academic year will be held near the beginning of the next Academic year.

Members of the present Junior class may substitute for the second mathematical elective of their Sophomore year either the first or the second mathematical elective of their Junior year.

These Honors will be given by the Faculty on the recommendation of a special committee of examiners, and the award will be printed in the annual catalogue.

After 1873 no one can be a candidate at graduation for Honors in the classics or in mathematics who has not previously taken Second-year Honors in the same department.

Candidates are required to register their names at the Dean's office as early as the first of May of each year. Candidates for the Classical Honors will designate at the same time which elective courses they intend to offer to satisfy the first condition as described above.

At Commencement, 1871, the following Honors were assigned : —

CLASSICS.

To James McManus, Robert Franklin Pennell, John Reynolds, John Henry Wheeler.

HISTORY.

To Samuel Brearley, Francis Barrett Daniels, Eugene Bigelow Hagar, Augustus Jay, Walter Cranston Larned, Simon Obermeyer, Michael Henry Simpson.

PHILOSOPHY.

To William Willard Boyd, Benjamin Beecher Townsend, Byron Crane Williams.

PHYSICS.

To William Barker Hills, Edward Osgood Otis.

NATURAL HISTORY.

To William Sturgis Bigelow, Edward Burgess, George Minott Garland, Samuel Howe, Edward Farley Whitney, Charles Herbert Williams.

MATHEMATICS.

To William Edward Story.

COLLEGE GYMNASIUM.

The Gymnasium is open to all members of the University, subject to certain rules and conditions; it is under the charge of Mr. A. Molyneaux Hewlett, Instructor and Curator.

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

There are daily devotional services in Appleton Chapel, at which all Undergraduates are required to be present. Undergraduates are permitted to pass Sundays with their families, or with families designated by their parents or guardians. Undergraduates who do not pass Sundays with their families are required to attend public worship once on Sunday. Each student may select his own place of worship if he be of age; if he be a minor, the selection is to be made by his parent or guardian. Seats are provided at the expense of the College for all Undergraduates who attend the Sunday services of the several religious denominations having established places of worship in the immediate vicinity of the College.

ROOMS.

Persons intending to present themselves for admission to College next summer may apply for rooms in the College buildings after 1st March, 1872, and the Steward will assign rooms to such persons according to the priority of their application. Each applicant must file with the Steward an agreement with sureties, binding himself, in case of failure to enter College, to legally transfer his right to a room to some member of College, or to cancel the agreement by payment of one quarter's rent.

EXPENSES.

The expenses of an Undergraduate for a year are as follows:—

Instruction, Library, Lecture-rooms, Gymnasium, etc.,	$150.00	150.00
Rent and care of Room, in the College Buildings
(with chums),	from 30.00	to 100.00
Board for 38 weeks,	from 152.00	to 304.00
Text-books (average),	from 20.00	to 25.00
Special Repairs, etc.,	from 1.00	to 2.00
Total,	from $353.00	to $581.00

Other expenses must vary with the economy of each student. Wood and coal ready for use are delivered at the students' rooms, by Cambridge and Brighton dealers, at market prices. The rent of furnished rooms in private houses in the immediate vicinity of the College is from $75 to $250 per annum. By going half a mile from the college the student may get cheaper rooms. The price of board at present is from $4.00 to $8.00 a week, but of course varies with the provision market. The Thayer Club enables Undergraduates to board at cost. Students living in College buildings find their own beds and furniture.

COLLEGE BILLS.

 The bills containing College charges are made out by the Steward, and are to be called for at his office. The first bill, which will include two thirds of the annual charges, will be ready for delivery on March 15, and is to be paid on or before April 5. The second bill, which will include one third of the annual charges, will be ready for delivery one week before Commencement, and is to be paid on or before October 10; but the second bill of the Senior year must be paid at least one day before Commencement.

PECUNIARY AID.

Many persons enter the College with slender pecuniary resources; but if they show capacity and character, they need not leave College for want of money. There is one uniform condition, however, on which help is given,—the recipient must be of good ability and high character.

SCHOLARSHIPS.

Seventy-seven Scholarships have been established in the College, varying in their annual income from forty dollars to three hundred:—

SALTONSTALL SCHOLARSHIPS. Two founded by Dorothy, Mary, and Leverett Saltonstall, with an income of one hundred and fifty dollars each.

PENNOYER SCHOLARSHIPS. Four from the annuity of William Penoyer; two of them with an income of eighty-five dollars, and two with an income of seventy-five dollars each.

ALFORD SCHOLARSHIP. Founded by Joanna Alford, with an income of forty dollars.

ABBOT SCHOLARSHIP. Founded by persons educated at Phillips Exeter Academy, with an income of one hundred and fifty dollars.

SCHOLARSHIP OF THE CLASS OF 1802. Founded by the Class of 1802, with an income at present of one hundred and fifty dollars.

SCHOLARSHIP OF THE CLASS OF 1814. Founded by the Class of 1814, with an income of one hundred and fifty dollars.

KIRKLAND SCHOLARSHIP. Founded by the Class of 1815, with an income, at present, of two hundred dollars.

SCHOLARSHIP OF THE CLASS OF 1817. Founded by the Class of 1817, with an income of two hundred dollars.

SCHOLARSHIP OF THE CLASS OF 1835. Founded by the Class of 1835, with an income of one hundred and fifty dollars.

SHATTUCK SCHOLARSHIPS. Eight from a bequest of Dr. George Cheyne Shattuck, with an income of one hundred and fifty dollars each.

WALCOTT SCHOLARSHIPS. Two from a bequest of Samuel Baker Walcott, with an income of one hundred dollars each.

THAYER SCHOLARSHIPS. Twelve founded by John Eliot Thayer, with an income of three hundred dollars each.

BOWDITCH SCHOLARSHIPS. Twenty-two with an income of two hundred and fifty dollars each, founded by a friend of the College.

TOWNSEND SCHOLARSHIPS. Six with an income of two hundred and fifty dollars each, founded by Mary P. Townsend.

STORY SCHOLARSHIP. Founded by Augustus Story, with an income of one hundred and fifty dollars.

GORHAM THOMAS SCHOLARSHIP. With an income of one hundred and fifty dollars.

BIGELOW SCHOLARSHIPS. Three from a bequest of Tyler Bigelow, with an income of two hundred and fifty dollars each.

TOPPAN SCHOLARSHIP. Founded by Mrs. Ann Toppan, with an income of three hundred dollars.

SEVER SCHOLARSHIP. Founded by James Warren Sever, with an income of one hundred and fifty dollars.

SEWALL SCHOLARSHIPS. Two founded by Samuel Sewall, with an income of two hundred and fifty dollars each.

HOLLIS SCHOLARSHIPS. Two founded by Thomas and Nathaniel Hollis, with an income of one hundred and twenty-five dollars each.

BROWNE SCHOLARSHIP. Founded by William Browne and his descendants, with an income of one hundred and fifty dollars.

SCHOLARSHIP OF THE CLASS OF 1841. Founded by the Class of 1841, with an income of about one hundred and twenty-five dollars.

MOREY FOUNDATION. From a bequest of George Morey, yielding about four hundred and fifty dollars, which may be divided into two Scholarships.

There are special provisions affecting the assignment of some of the Scholarships.

Applications from persons who wish to be considered as candidates will be received on or before the first day of June of each year; but only those who are high scholars and need assistance are encouraged to apply. The nominations and appointments are made at the end of each Academic Year, as soon as the scales of rank for the year are prepared; except that the Bigelow Scholarships are awarded by the Corporation to Freshmen soon after their entrance. The successful candidates for other Scholarships receive one-third of the annual income immediately upon the assignment of the Scholarships and the remaining two-thirds on the first of April following. The Scholarships for the Senior Class are assigned before Commencement, as soon as the annual scale for that Class can be prepared, and the entire annual income of the Scholarships so assigned is paid immediately. No person who has incurred a serious College censure in the course of the year will be considered a candidate for a Scholarship.

The Scholarships, when voted, are understood to cover the College year just ended; but the enjoyment of a Scholarship for one year will not constitute any title to a second nomination, unless the superiority for which it was originally awarded be fully maintained.

BENEFICIARY FUNDS.

Various other bequests and donations to the College have from time to time been made, the income of which is appropriated for the aid of deserving Students in narrow circumstances. The annual amount thus appropriated is about seven hundred and fifty dollars, which has usually been distributed in gratuities ranging from fifty to one hundred dollars.

Applications for aid from the Beneficiary Fund are addressed to the Dean, and must be presented to him on or before the first day of June, by the student's parent or guardian, or by the Student himself if of age. The application should state particularly the circumstances of the case, with the reasons for asking aid.

LOAN FUND.

In addition to the Beneficiary Funds above mentioned, there is a Loan Fund, the interest of which, amounting annually to more than two thousand dollars, is lent to meritorious Students desirous of receiving it, in sums ranging from fifty to one hundred and fifty dollars. This fund is under the control of a Board of Trustees, in Boston; Hon. John Lowell, Treasurer. More than eight thousand dollars have been already added to the principal by reimbursements.

The applications for the Loan Fund should be left with the Dean as early as the first day of February.

"The Trustees of the Fund for assisting Students at Harvard College request applicants for loans to observe the following rules:—

"1. To address their applications to the Treasurer of the Loan Fund, Hon. John Lowell, Boston," and give them to the Dean.

"2. To set forth their circumstances fully, as they would do on making application to an individual for like aid.

"3. To state what aid they have received, or expect to receive, from the College.

"4. If an applicant is under twenty-one years of age, his application must be accompanied by the written approval of his parent or guardian."

MONITORSHIPS, Etc.

Besides the foregoing provisions for the aid of meritorious Students, the various monitorships, etc., amount to about twelve hundred dollars a year, which may be considered as an addition, to that extent, to the beneficiary means of the College.

PRIZES.

I. DETURS.

A DISTRIBUTION of books called Deturs is made from the income of the Hopkins Foundation, near the commencement of the Academical Year, to meritorious Students of the Sophomore Class, and to those Juniors who entered the Sophomore Class, and whose merit would have entitled them to this distinction. Forty-one Deturs were given in the Freshman Class, one in the Sophomore Class, and one in the Junior Class, the last year.

Deturs are also given to such members of the Junior Class as, not having received them in the Sophomore year, shall, in the course of that year, make decided improvement in scholarship.

II. BOWDOIN PRIZE DISSERTATIONS.

PRIZES will be assigned from the Foundation of James Bowdoin, as follows:—

1. A prize of one hundred dollars for the best Dissertation by a Resident

Graduate of the University, or by a member of the Senior Class of 1871-72, on any of the subjects for Dissertations mentioned below.

2. Three prizes of fifty dollars each for the best Dissertation by members of the Senior or Junior Class of 1872-73, on any of the following subjects :—

1. The Contributions of the Port-Royalists to Logic and Philosophy.
2. The Ground of Right.
3. The Distribution of Constitutional Powers under Edward I., William III., and Victoria.
4. The Political and Social Results to be expected from International Combinations of the Working Classes.
5. The Character of Pope.

3. Two prizes of fifty dollars each for the best Dissertations by members of the Senior or Junior Class of 1872-73, on any of the following subjects :—

1. The Mont Cenis Tunnel.
2. The late Solar Eclipse.
3. Ocean Telegraphy.
4. Methods of Scientific Teaching.

4. Two prizes of fifty dollars each for the best Dissertations or Translations, by members of the Senior or Junior Class of 1872-73, on any of the following subjects :—

1. The Influence of Athenian Politics on the Greek Comedy. (English Essay.)
2. Num senatus Romanus, M. Cicerone postulante, recte de conjuratoribus Catilinariis interficiendis judicaverit. (Latin Essay.)
3. A Translation into Latin from Lamb's Tales from Shakespeare, Comedy of Errors, as far as the sentence beginning "Adriana, the wife of Antipholus."
4. A Translation into Greek prose from Hallam's State of Europe during the Middle Ages, Chapter III., Part I., beginning at the words, "Of the Government which existed in the Republics of Italy," to the words, "put himself at the head of the people."

Provided there be so many Dissertations or Translations worthy of prizes in the opinion of the judges.

Dissertations offered by Seniors of 1871-72 for the first prize must be deposited with the Dean on or before the twenty-sixth day of June, 1872. All other Dissertations for these prizes must be deposited with the Dean on or before the first day of November, 1872. The title-page must, with an assumed name, state the standing of the writer, as Graduate or Undergraduate, and if the latter, of what Class. A sealed letter must be sent in at the same time, under cover with the Dissertation, containing the true name of the writer, and superscribed with his assumed name.

The Dissertations must be written upon letter-paper of good quality, of the quarto size, with a margin of not less than one inch at the top and bottom, and on each side, so that, if successful, they may be bound up without injury to the writing. The sheets on which the Dissertation is written must be securely stitched together.

No Dissertation to exceed in length the amount of twenty-five printed pages of the North American Review.

The prizes for the last Academical Year were assigned as follows :—

Class of 1871.

TO KENNETH MCINTOSH, a First Prize.

TO HARRY PEIRCE NICHOLS, a Second Prize.

COMMITTEE.—Rev. Frederic H. Hedge, D. D., John C. Ropes, Esq., and Henry Adams, Esq.

Class of 1872.

TO WILLIAM PRESCOTT FROST, a First Prize.

TO ARTHUR HOLLAND, a Second Prize.

COMMITTEE.—J. Elliot Cabot, Esq., Prof. J. Lewis Diman, and Rev. Joseph H. Allen.

The following prizes for Greek and Latin Composition were awarded last year :—

For Greek Prose.

The prize was divided between WILLIAM PERCY AUSTIN, of the Class of 1871, and FRANK HASBROUCK, of the Present Senior Class.

For Latin Prose.

TO HENRY PEASE STARBUCK, of the Class of 1871.

III. BOYLSTON PRIZES FOR ELOCUTION.

On the day before Class Day in each year there is a public exhibition and trial of the skill and proficiency of the Students of the College in elocution, at which the Boylston Prizes are awarded.

The speakers are not to rehearse their own compositions ; but to select pieces in prose or verse from English, Greek, or Latin authors, the selections to be approved by the Boylston Professor of Rhetoric and Oratory. The proportion in English is to be at least two out of three.

The competitors must be Graduates of the year, or Undergraduates, of one of the next two Classes; and their names must be entered with the Professor, at the latest, fourteen days before Class Day. No applications will be received after that time.

The Corporation and five gentlemen selected by the Corporation, will act as judges and award the prizes as follows:—

Two First Prizes, of sixty dollars each; and three Second Prizes, of forty-five dollars each. The First Prizes may be withheld if none of the competitors appear to deserve them.

At this exhibition, no prompting of the speakers will be allowed; and a failure of memory in any one will exclude him from being considered in the assignment of the prizes.

The following prizes were assigned, June 22, 1871:—

The two First Prizes.

TO ELIOT LORD, of the present Junior Class.

TO CHARLES ALBERT PRINCE, of the present Junior Class.

The three Second Prizes.

TO EDWIN NEWELL HILL, of the present Senior Class.

TO ARTHUR HOLLAND, of the present Senior Class.

TO JOSEPH MAURICE SHEAHAN, of the present Junior Class.

IV. LEE PRIZES FOR READING.

Five Prizes of $25 each, and five of $15 each, are annually awarded to Freshmen for excellence in reading aloud English prose.

At the last trial Prizes were awarded as follows:—

The five First Prizes.

TO FREDERIC CUNNINGHAM,
WILLIAM DUFF HAYNIE,
FRANK ELDRIDGE RANDALL,
WILLIAM RICHMOND,
GEORGE RIDDLE.

The five Second Prizes.

TO AMORY GLAZIER HODGES,
EMIL WASHINGTON KRACKOWIZER,
EDMUND QUINCY SEWALL OSGOOD,
WILLIAM TAGGARD PIPER,
GEORGE CLARENCE SHEPARD.

Members of the present Sophomore Class.

GRADUATES' SCHOLARSHIPS.

THE HARRIS FELLOWSHIP has an endowment of ten thousand dollars, the yearly income of which is to be applied under the following conditions established by the founder : —

"That this income be given to some Graduate of acknowledged excellence in one or more departments of literature or science (but not necessarily of the highest College rank) for one or more years; that the recipient satisfy the Corporation of his need of such aid, and his purpose to make the most of it; that residence at Cambridge be required unless excused for substantial reasons, and that marriage be a disqualification; that studies for the professions of law, theology, or medicine, be excluded from the studies of the recipient, and that the Corporation be authorized to make such other restrictions and conditions as in its judgment will best secure from the recipient his entire devotion to accurate scholarship or the higher branches of science."

THE GRADUATES' SCHOLARSHIP has an endowment of twenty thousand dollars, the income of which is to be used in accordance with the following directions given by the founder : —

"for the encouragement and attainment of a higher, broader, and more thorough scholarship than is required or expected of Undergraduates, in all sound literature and learning, except science strictly so called."

"1. I direct that the Corporation, from time to time, shall select from the Senior Class the member who from his natural gifts, attainments, and general character, intellectual and moral, they, after consultation with the Faculty of the College, shall deem best fitted to attain the object contemplated by this donation, — and shall offer to him from said income and profits an annual grant of money upon the following conditions, viz : —

"That he shall reside at Cambridge and shall faithfully devote his time and thoughts to the pursuit of such branches and courses of study as he, with the approbation of the Corporation, may select. That whilst a recipient of this grant he shall engage in no studies designed to prepare him for a special profession, nor in any other business or occupation except that of a Proctor of the College, — or an occasional examiner of some of the classes, at the request of the Corporation. That, from time to time, he shall be subject to be called upon to give such evidence of his fidelity and proficiency as the Corporation may require, and especially to write essays and dissertations upon such subjects, within the circle of his studies, as they shall designate, and these, when completed, shall be at their disposal."

"2. I direct that the grant shall be from year to year, and that the amount thereof, in the first instance, shall not exceed the sum of eight hundred dollars."

RESIDENT GRADUATES.

Graduates of the University, or of other collegiate institutions, desirous of pursuing their studies at Cambridge without joining any of the Professional Schools, enjoy the use of the Library on the payment of five dollars a year. They give to the Steward satisfactory bonds in the sum of two hundred dollars, signed by two bondsmen, one of whom must be a citizen of Massachusetts, and they are subject to the laws and regulations of the College, as far as applicable to them.

DEGREE OF MASTER OF ARTS.

The Degree of Master of Arts will not be given in course after Commencement 1872. Thereafter an examination will be held annually for the awarding of this degree; the terms and conditions of this examination will be announced hereafter.

COURSE OF INSTRUCTION.

The course of instruction comprises Lectures, Recitations, written Essays, and other exercises, on all the subjects usually included in a system of Theological Education, embracing, —

The Hebrew Language ;

The Principles of Criticism and Interpretation ;

The Literature, Canon, and Exegesis of the Old and New Testament ;

Biblical Archaeology and Geography ;
Natural Religion and the Evidences of Revealed Religion ;
The Philosophy of Religion ;
Systematic Theology ;
Philosophical and Christian Ethics ;
The Ethnic Religions, and the Creeds of Christendom ;
Ecclesiastical History, and the History of Christian Doctrine ;
Church Polity and Administration ;
The Composition and Delivery of Sermons ; Liturgies and the offices of Public Worship ; and the duties of the Pastoral Office.

In addition to the course of instruction by the regular Professors, courses of lectures will be given the present year by the Rev. Rufus Ellis, on the Moral Evidences of Christianity, by the Rev. Samuel K. Lothrop, D. D., on the History and Principles of Congregationalism, and by the Rev. John H. Morison, D. D., on the Epistles of St. Paul. The University Lectures of Prof. Evangelinus A. Sophocles, LL. D., on the Early Christians as viewed by Pagan writers, and on the Sects of the first three Centuries, and those of Ezra Abbot, LL. D., on the Sources, Principles, and History of the Textual Criticism of the New Testament, will be open to Students of Divinity.

In Elocution Mr. Stacy Baxter gives instruction three half-days in each week.

The devotional services which are held daily in the chapel of Divinity Hall, are attended by the Professors and Students. The members of the several classes have exercises in the practice of Extemporaneous Speaking, and the members of the Middle and Senior Classes preach in turn in the chapel.

Students are entitled to receive instruction from the Instructor in the German Language, and to attend, free of expense, all public lectures given to Undergraduates in the Academical Department. They have access to the Divinity Library, which consists of 16,000 volumes, and also to the College Library, which consists of 128,000 volumes.

The Full Course occupies three years, on completing which to the satisfaction of the Faculty students are entitled to a certificate of graduation.

Students may be admitted to the School for a period of not less than one year, who shall pursue such studies as the Faculty may prescribe, and receive a certificate stating the length of time they have studied in the School, or, on examination, a certificate of graduation.

Students may remain, after completing their course, and continue their studies during a fourth year under direction of the Faculty.

TERMS OF ADMISSION.

Candidates for admission to the Divinity School are expected to present themselves on the first day of the academic year. If unknown to the Faculty, they are to produce testimonials of their moral and serious character.

All Bachelors of Arts will be admitted without examination. Other candidates for admission to the Full Course must have received a good English education, and must also pass an examination in some of the Latin Classical authors, and in the Greek Text of the Gospels.

Any person competent to pursue to advantage the Partial Course, will be admitted simply on producing satisfactory evidence of character and promise.

Any person may join the School as a University Student of Theology for not less than one half-year, and pursue certain elective studies.

Candidates for admission to an advanced standing must be acquainted with the studies previously pursued by the class which they propose to enter.

DEGREE.

Four weeks before Commencement, there will be an examination of candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Divinity. Applicants must previously present their names, with a theological thesis, to the Faculty. This degree will be conferred by the University on such members of the Graduating Class and University Students of Theology, and also on such former graduates of the School, as shall satisfactorily pass the required examination. This examination will be both oral and written, —

In the Hebrew, Greek, Latin, and German languages, including translations from portions of the Pentateuch and Psalms, from the New Testament in Greek, from the Vulgate in Latin, and from some standard work of Theology in German;

In the Literature and Exegesis of the Old and New Testaments;

In the History of the Church antecedent to the Reformation;

In the History and Grounds of Opinion in Natural Theology and Christian Doctrine, and in the External and Internal Evidences of Christianity;

In the History of Ethnic Religions;

In the History and Principles of Moral Science, and the Ethics of Christianity;

In Homiletics, Liturgics, Church Organization and Government.

PECUNIARY AID.

Pecuniary aid is afforded from various sources. The Hopkins Fund is administered by a Board of Trustees, and the income is awarded to six students, who must need aid, who must have received the degree of A. B. or A. M., and have given evidence of faithful and successful study. The shares will probably amount to at least $350 each. The income of the Williams Fund is awarded by the Society for Promoting Theological Education to students recommended by the Faculty, who comply with the requisitions of that Society. According to the terms of this bequest, the income is to be given to "such indigent students as shall be preparing themselves for the ministry, and shall be deemed most meritorious and worthy of assistance"; and "no student shall be debarred of this charity by reason of not having had a degree at a college, or being educated at any other college, or entertaining any peculiar modes of faith, it being always understood that he must be a Protestant." The other funds are awarded by the Corporation and Faculty on liberal conditions. The aggregate annual income of the Williams Fund and of the funds last named will allow from $150 to $200 to each beneficiary, but the sum will vary with the number of candidates, who must be students in the full or partial course. The constitution of the Divinity School declares, that it is the purpose of the institution "to assist young men of competent talents, pure morals, and piety, in preparing themselves for the Christian ministry;" and it prescribes that "every encouragement be given to the serious, impartial, and unbiased investigation of Christian truth, and that no assent to the peculiarities of any denomination of Christians shall be required either of the Instructors or Students."

In special cases some assistance from other sources may be obtained for students who give promise of usefulness.

BONDS AND EXPENSES.

Students are required to reside in or near Divinity Hall. They must give bonds in the sum of $200 to the Steward, signed by two bondsmen, one of whom must be a citizen of Massachusetts, for the payment of term-bills. A copy of the class-books, with the exception of the Hebrew and Greek Scriptures, will be furnished on loan.

The necessary expenses for the year are :—

For rent and care of room	$60.00
For tuition	50.00
For board at $3.50 a week	133.00
For fuel	25.00

To which are to be added the expenses of washing and lights.

Each room is supplied with a bedstead, mattress, bureau, and table. Stoves and other furniture must be provided by the occupant. Washing is done for $0.75 per dozen pieces. It is probable that the price of board will not exceed $3.50 per week at the Club which has been formed among the students. The price in boarding-houses varies from $5.00 to $8.00 per week.

COURSE OF INSTRUCTION.

The design of this School is to afford such a training in the fundamental principles of English and American Law, as will constitute the best preparation for the practice of the profession in any place where that system of law prevails. With this view, the prescribed course of study, which is designed to occupy the student two full years, will comprise the following subjects:—

FIRST YEAR.

- | | |
|---|-----------------|
| 1. Real Property | Prof. WASHBURN. |
| 2. Contracts | Prof. LANGDELL. |
| 3. Torts | Mr. GREEN. |
| 4. Criminal Law and Criminal Procedure | Mr. GREEN. |
| 5. Civil Procedure at Common Law | Prof. LANGDELL. |

SECOND YEAR.

- | | |
|--|-----------------|
| 1. Real Property | Prof. WASHBURN. |
| 2. Civil Procedure at Common Law | Prof. LANGDELL. |
| 3. Evidence | Prof. HOLMES. |
| 4. Jurisdiction and Procedure in Equity | Prof. HOLMES. |

The entire course will be taught every year, so that students entering the School at the beginning of any year can begin the course and complete it in two years.

The methods of instruction will be by recitations; by lectures and expositions; by moot courts; and by cases assigned to students for written opinions. Students will be required to prepare pleadings in equity, adapted to cases which will be given out for that purpose. Civil Procedure at Common Law will be taught by cases containing statements of facts, on each of which cases four counsel will be assigned, two on a side, to plead to issue. The issue will then be argued before the professor and decided by him.

During the Academic year 1871-72, instruction will be given in the following subjects in addition to those of the prescribed course:—

- | | |
|--|-----------------|
| 1. Constitutional Law | Prof. WASHBURN. |
| 2. Sales of Personal Property | Prof. LANGDELL. |
| 3. Bailments | Prof. HOLMES. |
| 4. Marine Insurance | Mr. BIGELOW. |
| 5. Corporations | Mr. BRADLEY. |
| 6. Shipping and Admiralty | Mr. LATHROP. |
| 7. Conflict of Laws | Mr. GRAY. |

ADMISSION, EXAMINATIONS, AND DEGREES.

No examination, and no particular course of previous study, is required for admission, except in case of candidates for a degree who apply for admission to advanced standing; but the student, if not a graduate from College, must be at least nineteen years of age, and produce testimonials of good moral character. He must also give a bond in the sum of $200.00, signed by two bondsmen, one of whom must be a citizen of Massachusetts, for the payment of dues to the University; or, instead of filing a bond, he may pay his tuition-fee for the year in advance, and deposit $50.00 with the Steward, to be retained until the end of the Academic year, and then to be accounted for.

Students who are not candidates for a degree may enter the School at any stage of their professional studies, and at any time in the year, and may avail themselves of the advantages of the School in whatever manner and to whatever extent they see fit.

The degree of Bachelor of Laws will be conferred upon Students who, having been in the School during the whole course of two years, shall have passed satisfactory examinations at the end of each year in the prescribed studies of that year; and also upon those who, having been admitted one year in advance, shall have been in the School one year and have passed a satisfactory examination in the prescribed studies of the second year at the end of the year.

Admission to advanced standing will be allowed only upon an examination, which will be held at the beginning of the Academic year, and will require of the candidates a thorough knowledge of the following books:—

Washburn on Real Property (Book I., Chapters 1 to 5 inclusive, and Chapters 10 to 16 inclusive; Book II., Chapter 2, §§ 2- to 5 inclusive; Book III., Chapters 4 and 5); Langdell's Select Cases on Contracts, Vol. I.; Addison on Torts, abridged; Blackstone's Commentaries, Book IV.; Stephen on Pleading, including Chapter 1.

The examination for admission to advanced standing for the year 1872-73 will be held at Dane Hall on Thursday and Friday, September 26, 27, beginning at 9 A. M. on Thursday. No applicant will be examined at any other time.

FEEES AND EXPENSES.

The fee for the first year that a student is a member of the school is $150.00; for the second year, $100.00; and for any subsequent year,

$50.00. For a half, or any less fraction of a year, a half year's fee is charged; for more than half a year, the fee for the whole year is charged.

There are no extra charges in the School.

The other expenses of a student for an Academic year may be estimated as follows:—

Rent and care of furnished room . . .	from $75.00 to $150.00
Board for thirty-eight weeks . . .	from 190.00 to 304.00
Fuel and Lights	from 20.00 to 35.00
Text Books	from 20.00 to 25.00
	$305.00 to $514.00

Many students in the University board in clubs, at a less cost than is given in the above estimate; others board themselves still more cheaply. Students who are willing to go a mile from the Law School can also get cheaper rooms.

LIBRARY.

The Law Library is one of the most extensive in the country; and among libraries belonging to law schools it has no rival. In the departments of Civil and Foreign Law it is believed to stand at the head of all libraries in the country. It is constantly receiving important additions.

The Library is open day and evening, for the use of students, during the entire Academic year.

SCHOLARSHIPS.

Four Bussey Scholarships and four University Scholarships, of the annual value of one hundred dollars each, have been established in the Law School. They are assigned at the beginning of each Academic year to meritorious students standing in need of such assistance, who have been in the School the whole of the preceding year, and propose to remain in it the whole of the ensuing year. The award is made by the Corporation on recommendation of the Faculty. One third of the annual value of the Scholarships is paid at the time of the award, and the remaining two thirds on the first of April following. Applications for these Scholarships must be addressed in writing to the Dean by the first of June.

This School has been reorganized and now offers :—

1. A four years' course of study in CIVIL AND TOPOGRAPHICAL ENGINEERING, as follows : "First Year—Spherical Trigonometry ; Analytical Geometry ; Descriptive Geometry ; Chemistry ; Surveying and Plotting ; Road-making ; Free-hand and Water-color Drawing ; French. Second Year—Differential and Integral Calculus ; Mechanics ; Physics ; Mathematical and Physical Geography ; Elementary Geology ; Crystallography, Mineralogy, and the use of the Blow-pipe ; Mechanical Drawing ; French ; German. Third Year—Applied Mechanics ; Practical Astronomy and Geodesy ; Hypsometry ; Topographical Surveying and Drawing ; Higher Structural Geology ; Palaeontology ; Photography ; German. Fourth Year—Building materials, and their applications in railroads, canals, bridges, etc. ; Applications of Descriptive Geometry to masonry and stone-cutting ; Hydraulics ; Heat and its applications ; Discussions of existing structures and working out of projects.

2. A one year's course of study in the elements of NATURAL HISTORY, CHEMISTRY AND PHYSICS as follows : Physical Geography, Meteorology, and Structural Geology; General Chemistry and Qualitative Analysis; Physics; Botany; Zoölogy; Entomology.

This course is especially intended for teachers or persons who intend to become teachers. The instruction is mainly given in the laboratories and museums of the University; it is of the most practical character, every student being taught to make experiments and study specimens himself.

3. A three years' course in PRACTICAL AND THEORETICAL CHEMISTRY as follows: First Year—Chemical Manipulation; Descriptive Chemistry; Qualitative Analysis; use of the Blow-pipe; Free-hand and Water-color Drawing; Physics; Elementary Geology; French. Second Year—Descriptive Chemistry (continued); Quantitative Analysis; Experimental Physics; Crystallography and Drawing of Crystals; Mineralogy; German. Third Year—Organic Chemistry; Preparation of Chemical Products; Chemical Physics (including Determination of Specific Gravity of Vapors and Gas Analysis); Metallurgy; Assaying; Photography; German.

This course is intended for students desiring to prepare themselves for the duties of the Practical Chemist or of Teachers of the Science, and the course may be varied to meet special wants. A good High-school education is an adequate preparation for the course.

4. Thorough instruction for advanced students in any of the following subjects: PHYSICS (Heat and Light); CHEMISTRY; ZOÖLOGY; GEOLOGY; BOTANY, and MATHEMATICS.

Professor Gibbs will receive special students in Heat and Light at the Rumford laboratory; Professor Cooke will receive special students in Chemistry at the laboratories in Boylston Hall. Professors Agassiz, Hagen, and Shaler, will receive special students in Zoölogy and Geology at the Museum of Comparative Zoölogy. Professor Gray and Assistant Farlow will receive special students in Botany at the Botanic Garden and Herbarium. Professors Benjamin Peirce and James M. Peirce will receive special students in Mathematics.

The opportunities for advanced students in all branches of Natural History and in Physics, Chemistry, Astronomy, and Mathematics, are much greater this year than ever before. The Museum of Comparative Zoölogy has been more than doubled in size during the past year; a laboratory, lecture-room, and green-house, have been added to the equipment of the Botanical department; a laboratory of Physics has been created in Harvard Hall; the Chemical laboratories have been greatly enlarged and improved; the interior of the Scientific School Building has been completely reconstructed, and a distinct physical laboratory and cabinet have been assigned to the Rumford Professor (Dr. Gibbs). At the same time the scope and volume of the instruction have been greatly enlarged. Field instruction will be given both in term-time and vacation in Geology, Zoölogy, and Botany.

ADMISSION.

Candidates for admission to the four years' course of study in Civil and Topographical Engineering (unless they are graduates of colleges), will be examined in Arithmetic, Algebra, Geometry, and Trigonometry; and will also be required to show that they are reasonably proficient in English Grammar and Geography. Every candidate for admission to advanced standing will be further examined in all the studies already pursued by the class for which he offers himself. There is no examination for admission to the other courses or departments.

DEGREES.

The degree of Civil Engineer will be conferred upon students who have completed the course of study in civil and topographical engineering, and sustained the necessary examinations.

The Degree of Bachelor of Science may be conferred upon any student who, having attended the School for at least one year, and completed the prescribed course of studies in one or more Departments, shall have passed a satisfactory public examination. The Department or Departments in which the student has been examined, and his grade of merit, will be specified in the Diploma.

Certificates may be granted to students who do not graduate, stating the time they have been present in the School, the studies they have pursued, and the progress they have made.

LECTURES AND COLLECTIONS.

Students of the Scientific School may attend, without charge, any of the public Lectures delivered to Undergraduates by the Professors of the College.

The Anatomical Museum, the Museum of Comparative Zoölogy, the Botanic Garden, and the Public Library of the University, are accessible to the students of the Scientific School.

FEES AND EXPENSES.

The tuition-fee for the academic year, in any of the above departments or courses, is $150; for half or any smaller fraction of a year $75; for any fraction of a year greater than one-half, the fee of the whole year is charged.

The other expenses of a student for an academic year may be estimated as follows:—

Room	from $30 to $100
Board for thirty-eight weeks	from 152 " 304
Books	from 20 " 25
Fuel and Lights	from 15 " 35
Washing	from 19 " 38
	$236 to $502

Students in Chemistry are supplied with all needed apparatus, but are required to restore it in as good condition as when received. They are charged for all damage or breakage, and also from ten to thirty dollars per annum for chemicals and use of apparatus.

Students in Engineering will provide their drawing materials.

The Gymnasium is open to all members of the University. The fee for attendance and instruction is four dollars a year.

All students admitted to the Lawrence Scientific School, or the Mining School, must furnish satisfactory evidence of good moral character, give bonds in the sum of $200, signed by two bondsmen, one of whom must be a citizen of Massachusetts, for the payment of all dues to the University, and register their names with the Dean of the Faculty of the School to which they are admitted. Instead of filing a bond, a student may deposit with the College Steward such a sum of money as may be deemed sufficient to secure payment of all dues to the University.

This School has for its object the instruction of Students in Practical Geology, the Art of Mining, and kindred branches. The full course occupies four years, and on those who pass through it and sustain the necessary examinations, the degree of Mining Engineer will be conferred.

COURSE OF STUDY.

The full course, prescribed for candidates for the degree of Mining Engineer, occupies four years, the first three of which are identical as regards the subjects of instruction and the order thereof, with the first three years of the Engineering Course in the Lawrence Scientific School. The subjects of instruction during the fourth year of the course are as follows:—Economical Geology and the Phenomena of Veins; Mining Machinery and the Exploitation of Mines; General and Practical Metallurgy; Assaying; Working up, Plotting, and Writing out notes of summer excursions.

From time to time opportunities will be offered to the Students, by excursions with the Professors, of becoming practically acquainted with astronomical and geodetic work, as also with the method of making geological surveys, and with mining and metallurgical operations.

ADMISSION.

The terms of admission on examination are the same as those of the Engineering Course in the Lawrence Scientific School.

Graduates of Colleges will be admitted without previous examination, and those who have taken the mathematical and scientific studies of the elective courses in Harvard College, or their equivalents in other Institutions, should be able to enter at the commencement of the Second Year.

Persons properly qualified, and able to pass the necessary examination, will be admitted to any part of the course, at the beginning of any half-year, but not later than the beginning of the second half of the Third Year.

Any person, however, who is not desirous of being considered as a candidate for a degree, may attend any special branch taught in the School or any course of lectures, at his own pleasure, on paying such proportion of the fees for instruction as may be fixed by the Professor to whose department he desires to be attached.

OBJECTS AND COURSE OF INSTRUCTION.

THE objects of the Observatory are to furnish accurate and systematic observations of the heavenly bodies for the advancement of Astronomical Science, to coöperate in Geodetical and Nautical Surveys, to contribute to the improvement of Tables useful in Navigation, and, in general, to promote the progress of knowledge in Astronomy and the kindred sciences. To aid in effecting these objects, provision is made for publishing the Observations and the Director's Reports, and for increasing the Library.

Practical Astronomy and the Use of Astronomical Instruments will be taught by the Director of the Observatory, and by his Assistants.

COURSE OF INSTRUCTION.

The school is established in Boston, to secure those advantages for the study of Anatomy, Physiology, and Clinical Medicine, which are afforded only by large cities.

The attention of all interested in medical education is called to the fact that the plan of study has been radically changed.

The regular course of study for persons who begin and complete their medical education at this school will occupy three full years, and is so arranged as to carry the student progressively and systematically from one subject to another in a just and natural order. Instruction is given by lectures, recitations, clinical teaching, and practical exercises uniformly distributed throughout the Academic year. In the subjects of Anatomy, Physiology, Chemistry, and Pathological Anatomy, laboratory work is substituted for or added to the usual lectures and recitations. Normal and Pathological Histology are taught practically in the room arranged for the use of the microscope. Pathological Anatomy is illustrated by fresh specimens, and the collection of the Warren Anatomical Museum. Special instruction is given in Auscultation and Percussion, the students being exercised in the examination of cases. Other methods of direct exploration, as with the laryngoscope and ophthalmoscope, are also taught. Cases of midwifery are furnished to students in their third year. A course in operative surgery is given in the third year, students being furnished with material for repeating the usual surgical operations. The Massachusetts General Hospital, the City Hospital, the Massachusetts Charitable Eye and Ear Infirmary, the Boston Dispensary, and the Marine Hospital at Chelsea, furnish excellent opportunities for the practical study of all varieties of disease. In Clinical Medicine, students are furnished with cases for personal examination, and are called upon to report them before the class, where they are criticised.

DIVISION OF STUDIES.

First year. — Anatomy, Physiology, and General Chemistry.

Second year. — Medical Chemistry, Materia Medica, Pathological Anatomy, Theory and Practice of Medicine, Clinical Medicine, Surgery and Clinical Surgery.

Third year. — Pathological Anatomy, Therapeutics, Obstetrics, Theory and Practice of Medicine, Clinical Medicine, Surgery and Clinical Surgery.

EXAMINATIONS.

The regular examinations are held in the following order : —

At the end of the first year : Anatomy, Physiology, and General Chemistry.

At the end of the second year : Medical Chemistry, Materia Medica, and Pathological Anatomy.

At the end of the third year : Therapeutics, Obstetrics, Theory and Practice of Medicine, Clinical Medicine, Surgery and Clinical Surgery.

The regular examinations are held at the end of each year in June, but others are also held a week before the opening of the school in September, and at the close of the first term in February. In 1871-72 examinations will begin February 12, June 19, and September 19.

All examinations are conducted in part, at least, by questions and answers upon paper. No student will receive his degree until he has passed a satisfactory examination in all the above-mentioned subjects, and presented a certificate from the Demonstrator of Anatomy that he has satisfactorily dissected the three parts of the body. Those who fail in any subject may present themselves in that subject again at the next examination.

DIVISION OF STUDENTS.

Students who take the regular course of the school are divided into three classes, according to their time of study and their proficiency. These students are classified in the annual catalogue.

Students may be admitted to advanced standing in the regular course, but all who apply for admission into the second or third year's class must pass an examination in the branches already pursued by the class to which they seek admission. No student can advance with his class, or be admitted to advanced standing, until he has passed the required examination in the studies of the year, or a majority of them.

Students may be admitted to the school and become candidates for a degree without joining the regular classes, pursuing their studies in such order as may be advised. Such students may pass the required examinations either one subject at a time, several subjects at a time, or all the subjects at once, but only at the stated seasons of examination.

Students who do not intend to offer themselves for a degree will also be received at any part of the course for one term or more; or in a single department, by paying such fees as may be agreed upon.

All the subjects of the whole three years' course will be taught every year, so that a student who is unable to remain in the school three years or two, may nevertheless in any one year get the benefit of all the instruction given in any of the subjects.

Any student of the school may obtain, without an examination, a certificate, which will be evidence of attendance upon lectures or time spent in study.

REQUIREMENTS FOR A DEGREE.

Every candidate must be twenty-one years of age, and of good moral character; must give evidence of having studied medicine three full years; have spent at least one continuous year at this school; have presented a satisfactory thesis; and have passed the required examinations.

FEEs.

For Matriculation, $5; for a year, $200; for either term, $120; for graduation, $30.

LIBRARIES.

The Library at the Medical College is open to the student on the deposit of $5, to be refunded to him when he may desire after returning all books. The Library of the University is open to those students who have filed bonds in the Steward's Office, Cambridge. The Boston Public Library, which contains a large collection of medical books, may also be used by students recommended by the Dean.

BOYLSTON PRIZE DISSERTATIONS.

A PRIZE is assigned once in two years, from the Foundation of Ward Nicholas Boylston, for the best Dissertation on a Medical Subject, proposed by a committee appointed by the President and Fellows of the University.

The prize is of the amount of two hundred dollars, and may be taken either in money, or in the form of a gold medal of that value.

The Dissertations must be sent to Dr. John Jeffries, on or before the first Wednesday in April.

The Annual Meeting at which the prize is awarded is held on the first Wednesday in August.

Each Dissertation must bear some motto or distinguishing mark, and be accompanied by a sealed letter containing the name of the writer. The unsuccessful Dissertations, with the accompanying letters unopened, are returned to the writers when called for within the year.

No prizes are awarded, if no one of the Dissertations presented is thought to be of sufficient merit.

COMMITTEE for reading the Dissertations and adjudging their merit :—

The Dental School of Harvard University, established in Boston, gives to its students unusual facilities for instruction in Anatomy and Physiology, Surgery and Chemistry, inasmuch as the Dental student pursues the same course in these branches which is required of the Medical student, and has free access to the Hospitals of the city, and to the Dissecting Rooms, Library, and Museum of the Medical College. The Professors teach by lectures, recitations, and clinics, and, under the direction of Demonstrators, patients are assigned to the students, who thus have an opportunity of operating at the chair, and becoming familiar by actual practice with all operations demanded of the dental practitioner. The regular lecture session begins on the last Thursday of September, at No. 50 Allen Street, and continues nineteen weeks.

COURSE OF INSTRUCTION.

The following methods of study have been adopted in the various departments :—

Anatomy and Physiology. Lectures, largely illustrated by the anatomical preparations and models of the Warren Museum, and by an extensive series of colored drawings and diagrams; various practical exercises including abundant dissection under the direction of the demonstrator; recitations from text-books; and histology.

Physiology. Lectures, recitations, and practical demonstrations in the laboratory. A new physiological laboratory has been fitted up under the supervision of an able teacher, who devotes his whole time to this department.

Chemistry will be taught mainly by practical work in the laboratory, each student having his own desk and apparatus. Besides the laboratory-work, there will be a lecture and recitation every week.

Surgery. Lectures and recitations. The surgical lectures are illustrated by a magnificent collection of colored drawings, and by recent and morbid specimens. All the new and approved surgical instruments and apparatus are exhibited, and their use explained. In addition to operations on the living subject at the hospitals, operative surgery is taught, and operations are performed upon the dead body, as a part of the illustrations of the surgical lectures.

Operative Dentistry. The instructions in this department are both didactic and practical. The Professor and assistants endeavor to demonstrate all known methods of performing operations upon the teeth and other tissues involved.

The development of the teeth, treatment of irregularities, origin and treatment of decay, materials used for filling teeth, the most improved instruments used in operating, etc., are appropriately treated of. Clinics are held at the Infirmary, and every available means used to make the student practically acquainted with all the modern improvements of this important branch of Dental Science.

Dental Pathology and Therapeutics. The instruction from this chair embraces the application of the general principles of medicine to the specialty of dentistry; the therapeutical agents used in dentistry; the various pathological conditions of the dental and contiguous tissues; the relative liability of teeth to disease; the predisposing and exciting causes and the chemistry of dental caries; the pathology and treatment of sensitive dentine; of pulpitis; of periodontitis; and of alveolar abscess. A course of lectures on some special subjects relating to dental pathology and therapeutics is delivered during the winter by the University lecturer in this department. The lectures are illustrated, not only by the aid of the collection of pathological specimens belonging to the school, but also by models and diagrams.

Instruction is also given in microscopy as applied to dental histology; a valuable collection of microscopical objects being used to illustrate the formation and structure of the dental tissues.

Mechanical Dentistry. Lectures and practical work in the laboratory; the manner in which mineral teeth are constructed to meet all cases, both special and general; the principles and method of carving and furnace work, and all compounds used for artificial teeth; also metallurgy, and the manner in which gold and silver plates are prepared and adapted to the mouth; the use of rubber and other articles as bases. It is the aim of the Professor to teach not only the mere mechanical process of Dentistry, but that combination of art with mechanism which enables the practitioner to effect so much in restoring the symmetry of the face and usefulness of the teeth where they have been lost or impaired by accident or disease.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR GRADUATION.

The degree of Doctor of Dental Medicine (Dentariæ Medicinæ Doctor) may be conferred upon each candidate of adult age, of good moral character, who shall have pursued his professional studies three years under competent instructors, and attended two full courses in this institution; except that a certificate of attendance upon one course of lectures in any respectable Dental or Medical College may be considered a substitute for the first course; provided such candidate maintain a thesis, and undergo an examination to the satisfaction of the Faculty, and convince the Professors of Operative and Mechanical Dentistry of his ability to meet satisfactorily the requirements of his art.

He must also deposit with the Dean, to be placed in the Museum of the College, a specimen of mechanical dentistry, or of practical or pathological anatomy, prepared during the course under the eye of the instructor.

FEEES.

Matriculation fee, $5.00.

Full course of Lectures, including demonstrators' tickets, $110.00.

Graduation fee, $30.00.

For further information, address DR. THOMAS B. HITCHCOCK, Acting Dean, 222 Tremont Street, Boston, Mass.

BUSSEY INSTITUTION.

A SCHOOL OF AGRICULTURE AND HORTICULTURE.

INSTRUCTORS.

ASA GRAY, LL. D., Professor of Botany.

THOMAS MOTLEY, Instructor in Farming.

FRANCIS PARKMAN, A. M., Professor of Horticulture.

DANIEL D. SLADE, M. D., Professor of Applied Zoölogy.

FRANCIS H. STORER, A. M., Professor of Agricultural Chemistry, and Dean.

CHARLES F. HOFFMANN, Professor of Topographical Engineering.

NATHANIEL S. SHALER, S. B., Instructor in Zoölogy.

FRANCIS G. SANBORN, Instructor in Entomology.

WILLIAM H. PETTEE, A. M., Instructor in Geography.

JOHN TROWBRIDGE, S. B., Assistant Professor of Physics.

WILLIAM G. FARLOW, M. D., Assistant in Botany.

CHARLES L. JACKSON, A. M., Assistant Professor of Chemistry.

PIERRE J. BORIS, Instructor in French.

GEORGE T. DIPPOLD, Instructor in German.

The School of Agriculture and Horticulture, established in execution of the Trusts created by the will of Benjamin Bussey, will give thorough instruction in Agriculture, Useful and Ornamental Gardening, and Stock Raising. In order to give the student a sound basis for a thorough knowledge of these Arts, the School will supply instruction in Physical Geography, Meteorology, and the elements of Geology, in Chemistry and Physics, in the elements of Botany, Zoölogy, and Entomology, in Leveling and Road-building, and in French and German.

The regular course of study, to be pursued by candidates for a degree, will fill three years. The instruction of the first year's course will be given at the Lawrence Scientific School, in Cambridge, and students of the first year must live in or near Cambridge. The instruction of the second and third years' courses will be given at the Bussey Institution, and students of the second and third years must live near the Institution which is situated in the town of West Roxbury, near the village of Jamaica Plain, about five miles southwest of Boston, and close to the Forest Hills station on the Boston and Providence Railroad.

REQUISITES FOR ADMISSION.

Candidates for admission to the first year of the regular course of the School must be at least seventeen years of age, and must present testimonials of good moral character; they will be examined in Arithmetic, Algebra as far as quadratic equations, English Grammar, and Geography. Candidates for admission to the second year of the regular course must be at least eighteen years of age, and must present testimonials of good moral character; they will be examined upon the studies of the first year in addition to the above-mentioned subjects.

The examination for admission will be held on Thursday, Sept. 26, 1872, at Lawrence Hall, Cambridge, beginning at 9 A. M.

Any person, who is not less than eighteen years old, may join the School, without examination, to pursue any special course or courses of instruction which he is qualified to pursue with advantage; but such special students will not be regarded as candidates for a degree.

BOND OR DEPOSIT.

Every student, when admitted, if he be a candidate for a degree, must give a bond in the sum of $200 to pay all charges accruing under the laws and customs of the University. The bond must be executed by two bondsmen, who must be satisfactory to the Steward, and one of whom must be a citizen of Massachusetts. Instead of filing a bond, a student may pay his tuition-fee for the year in advance, and deposit such a sum of money, not exceeding $50, as may be deemed sufficient to secure the payment of other School dues.

Special students will pay the tuition-fees in advance at the Steward's office, in Cambridge, or to Prof. F. H. Storer, Dean, at the Bussey Institution.

INSTRUCTION.

Instruction will be given by lectures and recitations, and by practical exercises in the laboratory, the green-house, and the field. Examinations will be held statedly, to test the student's proficiency.

REGULAR FIRST YEAR'S COURSE (AT CAMBRIDGE).

Physical Geography, Structural Geology, and Meteorology, Assistant Professor PETTEE.

General Chemistry and Qualitative Analysis, Assistant Professor JACKSON.

The Elements of Physics, Assistant Professor TROWBRIDGE.

Levelling and Road-making, Professor HOFFMANN.

The Elements of Botany, Professor GRAY and Assistant FARLOW.

The Elements of Zoology, Professor SHALEH.

The Elements of Entomology, Mr. SANBORN.

French, Mr. BORIS.

German, Mr. DIPPOLD.

SECOND YEAR'S COURSE (AT WEST ROXBURY).

Theory and Practice of Farming Mr. MOTLEY.

Preparation and care of manures and composts. Breeding and care of neat stock, with special reference to the dairy. Breeding of horses and swine. Preparation of the ground for root crops, hay, and grain. The sowing and planting of different seeds and roots for farm use. Field work with ploughs, harrows, and seed-sowers. Harvesting of hay and grain. Use of mowing-machines, hay-tedders, horse-rakes, etc. Examination of agricultural implements. Farm accounts.

Horticulture Professor PARKMAN.

Propagation of plants; the methods of practicing it, and the principles on which they rest. Propagation by seed; by cuttings; by layers; by budding, grafting, and inarching. Methods of obtaining new varieties of fruits, flowers, and vegetables. Horticultural glass-houses, their construction and management. The flower garden; — perennial flowering shrubs and trees; bedding plants; foliage plants; the rose; the lily; the rhododendron; the azalea; the gladiolus, etc. The fruit garden; — the strawberry, raspberry, peach, grape, apple, pear, etc. Nurseries and their management. Manual practice of horticultural operations.

Agricultural Chemistry Professor STORER.

Soil, air, and water, in their relations to the plant. The food of plants; — manures, general and special. Chemical principles of tillage, irrigation, systems of rotation, and of special crops and farms.

Applied Zoology Professor SLADE.

The anatomy and physiology of domestic animals. Their proper management in health and disease. Epidemics, — their nature, progress, mode of introduction, and proper treatment.

Entomology Mr. SANBORN.

Habits or economy, anatomy and transformations of insects; their embryonic development, and their relations to the surrounding world. Means of controlling or keeping in check the increase of injurious species. Systems of classification. Collection and preservation of specimens.

Quantitative Analysis Professor STOREY.

Laboratory practice. Methods of analyzing rocks, manures, plants, milk, etc., and of investigating problems in agricultural chemistry.

The third year's course of instruction will be hereafter arranged, and will be given for the first time in the Academic year 1872-73.

During the first year of the regular course the student will be expected to pursue with equal diligence all the subjects prescribed for that year; but during the second and third years the student's course of study, particularly as regards the amount and direction of his manual practice, may be varied at the discretion of the instructors, in accordance with the student's aims and purposes.

Women will be admitted to the courses of instruction in horticulture, agricultural chemistry, and entomology at the Bussey Institution.

FEES AND EXPENSES.

The regular fee for the Academic year will be $150; for half or any less fraction of a year, $75; for any fraction of a year greater than one half, the fee for the whole year will be charged. The fees for special courses of instruction are as follows:—

For the course on Farming	$40.00 for the year.
For the course on Horticulture	40.00 " " "
For the course on Agricultural Chemistry	40.00 " " "
For the course on Applied Zoölogy	40.00 " " "
For the course on Entomology	20.00 for the last half of the year.

For Laboratory instruction in Quantitative Analysis (including the course on Agricultural Chemistry), $150.00 for the year.

The tuition fees will be freely remitted to poor and meritorious students.

The other expenses of a student for an Academic year may be estimated as follows:—

Room	from $30.00 to $100.00
Board for 38 weeks	from 152.00 to 304.00
Text-books	from 20.00 to 25.00
Fuel and Lights	from 25.00 to 35.00
Washing	from 19.00 to 38.00

$246.00 to $502.00

The teachings of the School will be amply illustrated by the rich scientific collections of the University, and by a botanic garden, a large and profitable farm, green-houses, propagating houses, and field experiments. The single object of the School is to promote and diffuse a thorough knowledge of Agriculture and Horticulture.

UNIVERSITY LECTURES.

The University Lectures are intended for graduates of colleges, teachers, and other competent adults. There is no examination for admission. Residence in Cambridge is not essential. They are open, free of charge, to all professors in colleges or professional schools, and to all officers of instruction and government in this University.

Advanced students whose wants are not met by any of the courses announced, can obtain direction in their studies from the professors and lecturers of the University, during the entire academic year.

The fees for University Lectures are payable in advance (by mail or in person) at the office of George Dexter, Steward, Cambridge.

COURSES FOR 1871-72.

1. Early French Literature, Bartsch's Chrestomathie. By James R. Lowell. Once a week throughout the year. Fee $10.

2. The Sources, Principles, and History of the Textual Criticism of the New Testament. By Ezra Abbot. Two lessons a week in the second half of the year. Fee $10.

3. Gothic and Icelandic, Anglo Saxon. By Francis J. Child. Three lessons a week, on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays, at 4 p. m., throughout the year, in Gothic and Icelandic (or in Anglo Saxon at the pleasure of the student). Fee $30.

4. Plautus, The Roman Satirists. By George M. Lane. One lesson of an hour and a half at 3.30 p. m., on Mondays throughout the year. On Plautus the first half of the year; and on the Roman Satirists the second half. Fee $15.

5. Historical French Grammar. By Ferdinand Bôcher. Once a week throughout the year, on Saturdays, at 3 p. m. Fee $10.

6. The Legal Orations of Demosthenes; or (at the pleasure of the students), Plato's Republic and Aristotle's Ethics. By William W. Goodwin. Once a week throughout the year, on Wednesdays at 12 m. Fee $10.

7. The Comparative Etymology of Greek, Latin, and Sanskrit. By James B. Greenough, on Tuesdays, at 5 p. m., beginning October 3d. Eighteen lectures. Fee $5.

8. The Comparative Inflections of Greek, Latin, and Sanskrit. By James B. Greenough, on Thursdays, at 5 p. m., beginning October 5. Eighteen lectures. Fee $5.

9. The Comparative Syntax of Greek, Latin, and Sanskrit. By James B. Greenough, on Thursdays, at 5 p. m., beginning February 25th. Seventeen lectures. Fee $5.

10. Books I. II. and III. of Homer's Iliad. By Frank E. Anderson. Two lessons a week, for advanced students and teachers, during the second half of the year. Fee $10.

11. The Elements of Sanskrit. By Thomas S. Perry. Two lessons a week throughout the year. Fee $20.

12. The Early Christians as viewed by Pagan Authors. By E. A. Sophocles. One lesson a week, on Fridays, at 11 a. m., during the first half of the year. Fee $5.

13. The Semi-Christian, Pseudo-Christian, and Anti-Christian Sects of the First Three Centuries. By E. A. Sophocles. One lesson a week, on Fridays, at 11 a. m., during the second half of the year. Fee $5.

14. The History of the XIXth Century. By Samuel Eliot. One lecture a week, on Wednesdays, at 4 p. m., in the second half of the year. Fee $5.

15. Political Economy. By C. F. Dunbar. Twelve lectures in the second half of the year. Fee $3.50.

16. Jurisprudence. By O. W. Holmes, Jr., twice a week, on Tuesdays and Fridays, at 4 p. m., in the second half of the year. Eighteen lectures. Fee $5.

17. The History of Art. By Charles C. Perkins. One lecture a week, on Wednesdays, at 3 p. m., in the second half of the year.

18. Composition in Art. By John Lafarge. Six lectures, on Wednesdays, in the second half of the year. Fee $2.

19. The History of Music. By John K. Paine, on Saturdays, at 12 m., beginning October 19. Twenty lectures. Fee $6.

20. Botany. By Asa Gray. Twice a week, from April 20 to June 10, 1872, with laboratory work. Fee $5.

21. Ethnology. By Jeffries Wyman. One lecture a week, on Wednesdays, at 12 m., in the second half of the year. Fee $5.

22. Higher Structural Geology. By J. D. Whitney. Three lessons a week in the second half of the year. Fee $15.

23. Entomology. By H. A. Hagen. Private Laboratory lessons for advanced students, twice a week throughout the year. Fee $20.

24. The Botany of the Pacific States. By William H. Brewer. Six lectures in November and December. Fee $2.

25. Palaeontology, with practical exercises. By N. S. Shaler, three times a week in the first half of the year. Fee $15.

26. Practical Exercises in Geology, and Excursions. By N. S. Shaler, every Saturday when the weather permits, throughout the year. Fee for the year, $10; for either half, $5.

27. The Life of the Primordial Era. By J. B. Perry. One lecture a week in the first half of the year. Fee $5.

28. Ornithology. By J. A. Allen. One lecture a week, beginning in November. Fee $5.

29. Celestial Mechanics. By Benjamin Peirce. Two lectures a week, on Mondays and Wednesdays, at 11 A. M., in the first half of the year. Fee $10.

30. Modern Methods in Geometry. By James M. Peirce. Two lectures a week, on Tuesdays and Fridays, at 12 M., in the first half of the year.

31. Special subjects of Advanced Chemistry. By J. P. Cooke, Jr. One lecture a week throughout the year, on Wednesdays at 12 M. Fee $10.

23. Recent Researches in Magnetism. By John Trowbridge. Twelve lectures on Mondays and Saturdays, at 3 P. M., beginning February 12.

33. French and German Philosophy, from Descartes and Kant to Hegel and Schopenhauer. By Francis Bowen, on Mondays and Wednesdays, at 3 P. M., beginning December 4th. Thirty lectures. Fee $10.

IN the original Instrument of Trust the Founder has assigned to the Trustees three distinct duties : —

1. The forming and preserving of Collections.
2. The nomination of a Professor who shall have charge of the collections, and deliver lectures on subjects connected with them, the said Professor being appointed by the President and Fellows of Harvard College.
3. The erection of a building for a Museum.

The Museum cannot be undertaken till the $60,000 devoted to it shall be increased to at least $100,000. No Professor having been appointed, the income from the fund for his support has thus far been appropriated, in accordance with the directions of the Founder, to the care and increase of the Collections.

Large Collections pertaining to the Archaeology and Ethnology of the Old World and the New have been made, but have not as yet been exhibited to the public on account of the want of suitable rooms. The recent additions to Boylston Hall will soon temporarily supply this deficiency.

On Ash Wednesday, likewise, and on days of special thanksgiving and fasting, appointed by the civil or by the ecclesiastical authority, all lectures and recitations are omitted.

LIBRARY.

Of the several departments into which the University Library is divided, the principal is the College Library in Gore Hall. This Library is for the use of the whole University. Books may be taken out by all students of the University who have given bonds, and by all graduates of the University on giving bonds and paying an annual fee of $5. The Library may be consulted by all persons, whether connected with the University or not. In Term time (excepting the days of Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Year, Fast Day, and Class Day), it is open on every week-day from 9 o'clock till 5, or till sunset when that is before 5. In the vacation it is open every week-day from 9 till 2 o'clock, but books are not given out till after the annual examination, which is commonly made within about a fortnight after Commencement.

The Libraries connected with the different Schools of the University are for the special use of the Schools, and placed in the buildings where the Schools are kept.
